EXPERIENCE

SIMPCARE 溪木源 (Beauty brand) , 2024

Ximuyuan is a well-known functional skin care brand in China, which is committed to providing professional care programs for all sensitive muscles in Asia. I signed a contract with KORA Design Studio and participated in the brand's ip design and product appearance design, including product packaging and graphic design, and followed the whole product series from design to commercial output.

LEGAMBIENTE And C&C KIEL Italia , 2022 April-July

In my undergraduate graduation design, I participated in the project of Future train-pet carriage, and designed the internal structure of the whole theme carriage, including the capsule space for storing pets (structure, appearance and function), as well as the system for purchasing pet tickets, ticket purchase interface and APP
